DAHL MAY SEEK
FEDERAL OFFICESECRETARY OF STATE FREAR
MAY BE ONE STATE OFFICER LEFT.

GOSSIP AT STATE CAPITAL

Congressional Honors Are Tempting
Lure For Many of Present
State Officials.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., Nov. 8.—It may be that Secretary of State James A. Frear may be the only minor state official who will be a candidate to succeed himself. Until very recently it was thought there was no question but that State Treasurer A. H. Dahl would be in the field for a re-nomination. Now it seems likely, however, that like Atty. Gen. Gilbert, who is practically an unanimous candidate for congressional honors in the Second district, the present state treasurer may move into the field of federal politics. Great pressure is being brought on Mr. Dahl to secure his consent to a congressional candidacy against Arthur W. Kopp, of Platteville, the present congressman from the district. The statement that Mr. Dahl is being pressed to enter the congressional field is absolutely correct, as it left to his own wishes there is no question the present state treasurer would very much rather be a candidate again for his present office.

Has Matter Under Consideration.

Mr. Dahl is, however, a resident of Vilmar, Vernon county, which is in the Third district, and in casting their eyes around for some one whom they thought would make a strong opponent for Mr. Kopp, the leaders of the opposition to the congressman hit on Mr. Dahl, and as a result there have been several delegations from the Third district to call on Mr. Dahl during the last few weeks to see if he would make the run. The state treasurer has the matter under consideration and will, it is said, announce his decision before the end of this month, an early decision having been desired from him by the people who are opposing Congressman Kopp, so that another candidate may be found if the state treasurer declines to enter the field for the republican nomination against the present congressman, it being stated by the Kopp opposition that no matter what the answer of Mr. Dahl may be, there will be opposition to Mr. Kopp.

Unquestionably the factional fight in Wisconsin has a good deal to do with the Third district situation. Kopp has always been considered by the La Follette people as more or less of a stalwart.

As a matter of fact, down in Washington during the term he has served, although not aggressively progressive, Mr. Kopp acted far more with the La Follette leaders than they supposed he would, and they have not anywhere near the objections to him that they had when he entered congress.

In fact, it is likely that La Follette people would have headed off opposition to Kopp if it had not been for his recommendation of C. E. Harbut of Harbort for census enumerator in the district. Harbut is an old line anti-trader and his selection was a very smart ploy to the halfbreeds in the district and there was an immediate view of opposition to Kopp. The halfbreed leaders by Madison claim to have taken no hand in the matter, which claim is being engineered out of the Third district and to be purely a civil political war in that district.

Dahl Strong in Third.
As to the strength of Mr. Dahl as an opponent to Mr. Kopp it can be said there is no question of Dahl's strength in the Third district. In the first place Mr. Dahl is a Norwegian by birth and his countrymen are very strong in the western part of the district. Next, although a halfbreed, Mr. Dahl has many friends among men who are not pronounced factionalists. There is no question of his having been a strong state treasurer and all these things would count for him in a canvass for but not least, he is a resident of that but not least, he is the strongest Vernon county, which is the strongest republican county in the state, and in a primary Mr. Dahl will win out. In vote in that county which will aid him greatly in the contest. Thus, if Mr. Dahl should run he would have many things in his favor.

It is one of the curious things in politics that a few weeks ago it was the opponents of Senator La Follette who were looking for a candidate to contest against Kopp for the Third district nomination.

These people claimed the Third district congressman had been too much of an insurgent in congress to suit them and demanded very strenuously that the stalwart rally and find some candidate to oppose Mr. Kopp. In this connection there were some overtures of a rather informal character to the James O. Davidson that he enter the fight. The governor is not very anxious to run for congress and what is more, it is said the backing of the opposition to Kopp at that time was rather lackluster and he declined to have anything to do with the fight.

Now these stalwarts are, however, friendly to Mr. Kopp because of the recognition of them in the appointment of Mr. Harbut as census supervisor and the fight now on Kopp is from the other wing of the party.

Was on Prescribed List.

Now for Kopp was out of line with the reactionary sentiment in congress can, however, be seen when it is said that the Third district congressman was on the original list of the national republican leaders as one of the congressmen in this state whom they would very much like to see defeated for a re-nomination. It is interesting, however, that before any active work for the national republican leaders was done in the congressional districts in this state it had been decided not to make any attempt to disturb the Third district congressman for the reason that he was considered less objectionable from a reactionary standpoint than Congressman Nelson, Leurot, Morse and Cary, and it was thought best to concentrate the fight of the national leaders of the republican party on those men. Now it is the other side for whom Kopp must look out.

STARTS FOR WEDDING
BUT LANDED IN JAILGot in Row at Depot and Was Brought Into Court and Held Fine —Ceremony Delayed.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Appleton, Wis., Nov. 8.—Instead of plighting his troth before Justice Van derburg at Menominee, Mich., today, George Wiegand of this city, who at midnight Saturday was at the North Western depot here ready to take a train to meet his prospective bride in the northern city became involved in a free-for-all fight that resulted in his arrest and detention here until yesterday afternoon, when he was arraigned in municipal court and paid a fine and costs on a charge of resisting an officer. Wiegand, according to court proceedings, was one of a gang who attacked a Kaukauna musician at the depot. Police Officer Varga intervened and was obliged to use his club to ward off attack. Otto Wiegand and Paul Schumann were also arrested.

Fred F. Wetzel yesterday secured an option on one of the downtown sites in this city and today it is reported that Appleton will soon have a six-story building on the principal downtown corner. Among those mentioned as being interested in the project is John McNaughton, millionaire paper manufacturer, who owns the building at the corner of College avenue and Oneida street, which, if present plans mature, will be dismantled and supplanted by a modern store and office building.

The second victim of infantile paralysis in this city was recorded yesterday with the death of Oscar Schultz. City Physician Ellsworth declares there are five more cases of the disease in this city and county, which for a time was feared would become epidemic here.

NEW LORD MAYOR OF LONDON INSTALLEDMuch Pomp and Pageantry Attending Inauguration of Sir Robert Killick Today.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

London, Nov. 8.—Sir Robert Killick, the new Lord Mayor of London, was formally installed in office today, succeeding Sir George W. Trevellick. The procession of allegorical floats and much of the other time-honored pageantry associated for centuries with the annual "Lord Mayor's show" was abandoned by direction of the incoming official, but the great parade was none the less interesting because of the innovation. The pageant was distinctly a military and naval affair and was in happy accordance with the spirit of the times. The pageant was distinctly a military and naval affair and was in happy accordance with the spirit of the times.

About the only reminder of the gorgeous pageantry seen in former years was the Lord Mayor's carriage, which was a dream in gold and enamel, and drawn by eight white horses with outriders in scarlet livery. Lady Killick, wife of the Lord Mayor, rode in a separate carriage and was attended by sixteen maids of honor, attired in white and silver. Also occupying carriages in the procession were eight survivors of Balclutha, who were cheered enthusiastically all along the way.

The new Lord Mayor is a Roman Catholic and is a son of Sir Stuart Killick, who was Lord Mayor in 1883. He is a member of the firm of John Killick and Company, whose landing wharves are among the oldest on the Thames. Sir John received his early education at Beaumont College, Windsor, and studied later in France and Germany. He is a member of two of the city companies—the goldsmiths and the plumbers.

The afternoon program included a civic and military parade, a public address by the President delivered at the city hall and a second address to the citizens people assembled at St. Stephen's church. The President concludes his visit this evening with an automobile ride about the city and suburbs and a supper at the Masonic Temple.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

London, Nov. 8.—"Edward VII., by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India," reached his sixty-eighth birthday today. His majesty passed the day quietly with his children and grandchildren, the latter vying with each other in their expressions of fondness for their beloved "grandpa."

From early morning congratulations poured in upon the king from all parts of the world, and presents arrived throughout the day from royal and distinguished personages. Nearly 2,000 messages were received, including a very cordial one from the German Emperor. To each one a cordial acknowledgment was sent, many of them in the king's autograph.

The London salute of forty-one guns in honor of the king's birthday was fired at noon in St. James Park. The royal garrison artillery at the Tower also fired the customary royal salute. At the government offices the Union Jack was flown, and the several foreign embassies and legations hoisted their distinctive flags. The anniversary was observed at Windsor by the ringing of the bells of St. George's chapel and the parish church. The chapel buildings were decorated, and a salute was fired in the Long Walk.

In all naval ports and at military stations at home and abroad the day was marked by special observances. At Portsmouth the whole of the warships in commission were dressed over all with flags, and at noon a salute of twenty-one guns was fired.

COUNCIL ORDERS A POLICE PROBE

CLUBBINGS BY MASON AND BROWN TO BE INVESTIGATED.

PRIVATE SEWER ANNEXED

After Considerable Discussion—Racine Street Jog Left to Highway Committee—Other Business of Meeting.

At the instance of Alderman Richardson, chairman of the police committee, an order was introduced and passed by the common council last evening directing City Attorney Maxfield to file complaints with the first and police commission against Officer Samuel P. Brown for assaulting a person on Oct. 9 and against Officer William P. Mason for clubbing a man on the evening of Nov. 6. Alderman Brown recommended against any such proceeding on the ground that the council had stired up enough trouble in the police department in recent times and ought to leave such matters to the initiative of such private citizens as might be supposed to know something about the merits of the cases. The order carried by a vote of 8 to 1. Archie Northway is supposed to have been the person whose feelings were hurt by Officer Brown's club and Harvey Hathorn was Officer Mason's "victim."

To Take Over a Sewer.

There was considerable discussion of a resolution introduced by Alderman Hinkelholz which provided for the city's taking complete control of a private sewer owned by S. D. Heddles, Dr. J. E. Loomis, George F. Gower, Edward Amorphil, and others, which runs along Terrace and Ravine streets, Mineral Point avenue, thence east to Madison street, and thence to the river. The pipe was laid eight or nine years ago by interested parties and thereafter other property holders were charged $25 each for connections. For some time past the city has used a part of it for a storm sewer on Mineral Point avenue west of Washington street and it was the only one of the private sewers deemed good enough to be included in the city's new system. Also, it has already been connected with the River street trunk line. The interested parties invested $778.70 in the project and the city, $1,041.74. After allowing for an assessment of $25 each against each of the parties benefited, including the original promoters, there remains a cost balance of $553.70, and the resolution, as subsequently amended, provided that the city should reimburse the builders to that amount and collect at the rate of 40 cents per foot of lot frontage from all property owners who should hereafter desire connections, the assumption being that it would eventually recover, by such a procedure, the entire outlay and that all parties benefited would be placed, thereby, on an equal footing. Ald. Brown objected to the idea on the ground that it was entirely a local ward and not a city proposition. Ald. Sheridan argued that in taking over the administration of the property and making the new owners pay for connections the city would simply act as a sort of trustee and would lose little or nothing. City Engineer Korch suggested that Sewer District 6 should eventually bear the expense and Attorney T. S. Nolan called attention to the fact that the city already owned two-thirds of the line; that it was desirable that the balance be taken over and improved for storm sewer purposes; and that under the circumstances it was only fair that the original builders be reimbursed. The resolution stipulating such action on the part of the city and directing the city attorney to draft an ordinance providing for the collection of 40 cents per foot of frontage from all new lot owners who shall be allowed to connect, was passed by a vote of 8 to 1.

Racine Street Jog.

Alderman Brown's order directing the street assessment committee to have the curb and gutter at the corner of Racine and South bluff street changed so as to conform with the curb and gutter east of South bluff street also provoked a lively discussion. His colleague, Ald. Kimball, protested that there was a natural jog in Racine street at that corner; that the curb and gutter and macadam work there was about completed and that such a change would involve an outlay of $50; and that in the end the street would look no better, but much worse. City Engineer Korch stated that if such a change were made the parking would have to be narrowed in front of the voting booth and that one section of the highway would have to be made much wider than the balance. In the end the order was amended and the whole matter referred to the highway committee with power to act.

Milwaukee Street Bridge.

Mayor Carlo called for a statement of the building committee's plans for repairing the Milwaukee street bridge and bringing the surface to grade. Ald. Sheridan stated that the committee had decided to repair with planks and Ald. Evans announced that 3x1 timbers would be used to "trim up" to grade. B. J. Moore of Chicago, representing the Kettle River Quarries company, tried to interest the aldermen during the recess in cross-cut blocks and expected to take some of them today to see work done on one of the Detroit bridges.

The street assessment committee's report on the cost of water, gas, and sewer service places ordered constructed on South Main, Racine, North High, Washington, and Madison streets was adopted. Likewise its report of the assessment of benefits and damages for the improvement of Olive street, from Madison to Washington street.

On recommendation of the same committee a measure was passed directing that in addition to the taxes levied for sewer construction purposes in 1909, additional sums should be raised by a special assessment of 2 1/2 mills against all taxable property in sewer districts 2, 3, 4, and 5, and one mill in sewer district 6.

Alterations and Repairs.

The street commissioner was directed by orders to repair Pleasant street from the river to Linn street with crushed stone, the cost of the same to be charged to the Fourth and Fifth ward funds; repair South Main street, from the brewery to Eastern avenue, with gravel; properly place all loose crossing plates and clean the gutters; and storm sewers in the Third ward; and build a brick crosswalk over Williams street on the south side of Walker street. The Janesville Water company was directed to change its layout at the corner of Garfield avenue and Racine streets as directed by the city engineer. Instructions were given the city clerk to have published in the official paper a notice regarding the issuance of bonds to pay for the improvement of North High street, from the northerly side of Race street to the easterly side of Madison street, and on Madison street, from Racine to Jackson street. The committee on parks was granted permission to retain the caretakers long enough to have them apply fertilizer to the grass.

Departmental Reports.

Supt. W. E. Dullin's report showed that the stone crusher plant had turned out 939 1/2 yards of material during the two weeks ending Nov. 6. Fees, fines, and penalties amounting to $100.00 were collected by the municipal court during the month of October. The board of education drew orders for $12,122.70 to meet both the September and October teachers' payrolls, a coal bill of $2,321, and other bills. On motion, the city treasurer's report for the month ending Oct. 31 and Health Commissioner S. B. Buckmaster's report for the past three months were received and placed on file.

Matters of Finance.

Mayor Carlo was authorized to borrow $2,000 to be placed to the credit of the general fund; $400 to be placed to the credit of the library fund; and $100 to be placed to the credit of the fire and water fund. The city clerk was directed to draw on the treasurer in the sum of $140.00, charged to the fire and water fund, and payable to Edward Sheridan for twelve and a fraction tons of hay. The finance committee's report on bills was adopted.

Injury Claim Tabled.

On recommendation of the judiciary committee Peter S. Johnson's action for injuries and claims for damages was laid on the table. Similar action was taken with regard to a notice of appeal to circuit court from the disallowance of Mary Richardson's claim. The guarantee bond of John Lutz for street improvement work was approved and accepted. No recommendation regarding new street lamps was forthcoming from the lighting committee and the moving picture show ordinance was not restricted.

NEVER WAS STUDENT AT CARLISLE SCHOOL

Superintendent of Indian School in Pennsylvania Says Mason Never Attended There.

Some weeks ago there was locked up in the county jail an Indian, who gave his name as H. J. Mason and who was wanted for passing checks that were not good on a Detroit hotel man. Mason told the officers a story of having graduated from Carlisle Indian school, having been left considerable property by his father and having wandered away from home and during a dazed period, brought on by the loss of his father, having signed checks on a bank he had no money in. He avowed that he had 20 money in a woman came from Minnesota and paid his bills and took him away from the case was dropped. It now appears that his story about having been a student at Carlisle school was false.

St. Friedman's, the superintendent of the Indian school at Carlisle, Pa., denies that H. J. Mason is a graduate of the school. In a communication Mr. Friedman says that frequently Indians with unsavory records claim that they were students of the school for the purpose of minimizing their punishment.

FIRE DEPARTMENT CALLED TO EXTRICATE FARMER'S HORSE FROM SEWER TRENCH

Accident on North Main Street Last Night Resulted in Destruction of Suggy.

While driving home in a single file last night about nine o'clock, a farmer living near Johnston named Manning, more generally known as "Wildcat," and a companion crashed through the barricade surrounding an open sewer trench on North Main street. The horse fell bodily into the ditch and the services of the fire department were required to extricate the animal. Although neither of the men nor the horse was hurt, the buggy was completely wrecked.

EXCHANGED FISTCUFFS IN SALOON LAST NIGHT

John Kelly and A. J. Pierce Endeavor to Settle Argument with "The Fists."

Mutual recriminations between A. J. Pierce and John Kelly terminated in a fist fight in Van Houten's bar last night. As a result Kelly found lodging in the jail overnight, but Pierce was spirited away by friends before he could be apprehended. The former was allowed to go this morning as no one appeared to make a complaint against him.

DETECTIVES AFTER MANY COAL THIEVES

Chicago and North-Western Road Seek to Break Up Practice of Stealing Coal from Yards.

H. B. Duffel, special detective for the North-Western Ry., has been in the city for the past two days engaged in an active campaign against those who have been using the road as a free fuel dispensary. In several cases he has caught offenders while they were busily rolling large chunks of soft coal from the cars and active measures have been taken to bring the thieves to justice as well as make them serve as a warning to others who have been engaged in the same practice. In addition to stealing coal, weights have been added from the yards, but proceedings will not be pushed in this case although the thief was caught red-handed. In Kenosha, where Mr. Duffel was at work recently, he secured evidence which convicted over a dozen, while it is understood that in Janesville damaging evidence has been secured against six or seven. Several were brought into court this morning, but their cases were set for next Monday, when it is expected that the entire number of suspects will have been rounded up.

When you buy a piano at our salesrooms you get what you pay for.

We cannot give you for $300 an instrument worth $500, nor will we pretend to do so.

All we can do is to give you the full measure of value for the money you invest. No one else can do more.

Some of our pianos are priced higher than others because it costs more to make them—they are better instruments and are worth more money.

We do not attempt to enter into price competition with cheap pianos represented as having extraordinary merit. We could offer instruments of inferior grade, make exaggerated claims for them and sell them at apparently bargain figures.

But we would rather be fair with our patrons and have a business founded on the confidence of the public—and the only way we have yet discovered is to give every purchaser a full equivalent for his money, and without recourse to fictitious statements.

You can find pianos here higher in price than you see at most other piano stores. You can also find instruments marked at very moderate prices. You can make your choice knowing that in any case you are paying no premium over the real value of the one you select.

The Trend of the Styles In Furniture Designing

Public taste has shown a steady tendency to go backward in the search for objects of emulation in furniture styles. Craftsmen find inspiration in the simple mission styles and old English designs, as well as the always beautiful Colonial.

"The grand old Colonial days. The grand old Colonial ways. The swain, the lass, the dame of yore, Gone, gone forever more."

Gone, but the works of these clever designers have lived, and now form the type of designing known as the American Colonial, which has been finally adopted by America as the National Furniture.

The Kimball store is devoted to furniture of the better class, and of the different periods. We sell nothing but good furniture, and offer expert help in its choosing, which is a point to be considered.

MYSTERIOUS DOINGS
PUZZLE THE POLICE

Beloit Officers Have Work in Looking Out for Men Guilty of Various Crimes Recently.

(Special to the Gazette.)
Beloit, Nov. 9.—The Beloit police have several mysterious cases to follow up although none are very exciting unless it is in the fact that a dagger was found under the window of John T. Greenwood, where the scene had been cut. Several days ago Mr. Greenwood one morning found a window screen of his house cut and on a box under the screen was a murderous looking dagger. Mr. Greenwood reported the find to the police and they kept the matter quiet for several days and watched his house closely at night. Mr. Greenwood has to feel that robbers attempted to get in the house and would have killed him if occasion required. Sunday night, J. J. Hogan, a bartender at Cronk's saloon, was assaulted at the door of his boarding place and given a severe beating. Saturday night several hoodlums attacked M. W. Hayward, a farmer, and used him roughly. Two weeks ago a cook came home late at night and found his head knocked off by someone on the street. The police do not associate any of the cases, but have something to think of.

THEATRE

THE WASHINGTON SOCIETY LADIES AND THE "STAR" REPORTER IN "A GENTLEMAN FROM MISSISSIPPI" HERE THURSDAY

Wm. A. Brady and Joseph R. Grismer are sending to us in "A Gentleman from Mississippi," which will be presented at Myers Theatre Thursday, Nov. 11, the original Chicago company which has been so successful in the long run of that comedy there. It includes Burr McIntosh, who in the role of that Senator Langdon from Mississippi, has presented to the stage an idealistic interpretation of the southern character with all its rich humor and droll wit, romantic sentiment and genial good nature. The character, as Mr. McIntosh portrays it, is true to life and delightful in all its elements. No less successful is the portrayal of the young northern newspaperman by Will Leasing. There is an audacity and vigorous movement about the interpretation that brings it up to the rank of the best light comedy. All the others of the company are equally good in their respective roles making the performance an unusually well balanced one. The costumes and scenery are more than usually elaborate.

AN OLD RESIDENT
CALLED BY DEATH

Levi Hubbell, Long Resident of Town of Fulton, Died at November First.

On November first Rock county lost one of its old and respected citizens by the death of Levi Hubbell of the town of Fulton. Mr. Hubbell was born at Fulton, Onondaga county, New York state, on September 12, 1825. He was the eldest of four children, a brother, Edwin, living in Los Angeles, Cal., another brother, Sam, dying in Albany prison during the Civil war, and Mrs. Mattie Morris, a sister, dying in Boston, May 20 of the present year. Mr. Hubbell's father died when he was twelve years old and he was brought up in the family of an uncle until he was twenty.

when he left home and moved to Onondaga county to make his home. In 1878 he was united in marriage to Miss Ella M. Ald of Malibu, N. Y., and in 1880 he moved west to Wisconsin, settling in 1881 upon the farm in the town of Fulton where he has since resided. His wife and a daughter, Miss, are left to mourn his loss. The pall-bearers were all close friends and they laid his remains away in the Forest cemetery in Edgerton. They were Henry Cox, Frank Bruce, John Wessely, James Thompson, Charles Schenck and William Handley. The floral tributes were most beautiful and Rev. Wilford Powell of Beloit preached the funeral sermon and conducted the services. The song service was rendered by Mrs. Morrill, Miss Edith Whelan and Miss Lella Gifford of Edgerton. "Aldo With Me," "Nearer My God to Thee," and "Saved by Grace" were the three selections rendered.

In Doubt.
"Engaged to that beautiful girl and yet not happy?" "Well, she's gone in by turns for rowing and tennis and horses and golf and dogs." "Say on." "Sometimes I wonder if I am a sweet heart or merely a fool."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

SEASON OPENED FOR DEER ON WEDNESDAY

Hunters Are Now Rushing North to Secure Point of Vantage for Coming Twenty Days.

From all parts of the state the deer hunters are converging on their favorite hunting spots in the northern woods to be ready for the opening of the season of twenty days which starts tomorrow. From Janesville a party of Doctors, composed of Powell, Chittenden and Hart, left last evening, going by way of Wauskegan and the Wisconsin Central to a favored spot where they hope to enjoy themselves and incidentally capture a few deer. Dr. Gibson will join the party later. Alderman J. J. Dulla and former Chief of Police William Appleby also departed for the north and others from here will join them in a few days. Game will bring back deer of their own shooting and others will bring back deer and tell how they shot them.

In fact, buck fever is prevalent. It is not the old kind of a disease when the hunter seemed paralyzed at sight of a deer and stood shivering and trembling until the animal had passed, and would then come out of his trance, smile a sickly smile, kick himself a couple of times, regain his composure and perhaps within half an hour be a dead-shot artist, unmoved should a whole herd of the fleet-footed deer pass in procession before him and his aim and nerve would be so certain that he could shoot the spoils off a fawn with unerring accuracy.

But that was the buck fever of the days when in the north woods of Wisconsin the killing of hunters or innocent settlers had not come to be so popular. Then such accidents—perhaps "twers" better to call them crimes—were unknown. Now, however, the style has changed and buck fever has been reduced to designate the passion to buy a gun and go to the northern forests and pass the time dodging stray bullets or setting in the cabin of some woodsman while he goes out and kills one of the pretty creatures for the would-be hunter to bring home to palm off on his family or his friends while he told tales of how "twers" done.

The following notations which are necessary to the knowledge of any deer-hunter appear in the revised copy of the fish and game laws of Wisconsin, under section 40 which relates to deer-hunting:

It shall be unlawful and is hereby prohibited to hunt, take, capture, or kill by any means or in any manner whatever, or to pursue with the intent to hunt, take, capture or kill:

Any deer between the first day of December and the tenth day of November, of the succeeding year, both inclusive.

Any deer in the counties of Grant, La Fayette, Green, Rock, Walworth, Kenosha, Racine, Milwaukee, Waukesha, Jefferson, Dubuque, Iowa, Crawford, Richland, Sauk, Columbia, Dodge, Buffalo, Washington, Ozaukee, Sheboygan, Fond du Lac, Green Lake, Pepin, Marinette, Adams, Vernon, Monroe, La Crosse, Waushara, Winnebago, Calumet, Manitowish, Outagamie, Brown, Kewaunee, Portage, Waupaca at any time, nor in the counties of Dane and Shawano until November first, 1912.

Any deer, with a dog or dogs at any time.

Any deer in the "night-time," as the term is defined in the statutes.

Any deer in the water or on the ice of any stream, lake, or pond at any time.

Any deer by the aid of artificial light at any time.

It is made unlawful to place any snare in any place for the purpose of entangling deer thereto or to construct, occupy, or use any elevated scaffold or other device for the purpose of hunting, watching for, or killing deer.

Any means at any time.

It shall be unlawful and is prohibited for any resident to kill more than one deer or any non-resident to kill more than one deer when it is in the red coat or the skin of any fawn when it is in the spotted coat.

QUESADA, UNITED STATES ARBITRATOR.

Washington.—Gonzalo de Quesada, formerly Cuban minister to the United States, and now a member of the permanent court at The Hague by the republic of Cuba, has been selected by this government as an arbitrator in the case of the Orinoco Steamship company against Venezuela.

The Venezuelan government already has selected Dr. Roque Somoza Penn as its arbitrator. These two arbitrators will meet at The Hague early next January for the purpose of selecting the third member of the tribunal of arbitration.

The case to be submitted is the dispute between the United States and Venezuela arising out of the claim of the Orinoco Steamship company for damages for violating terms of concession. This case is the only one remaining of the five cases that were pending when High Commissioner William L. Hudson went to Venezuela last December. Two of them were settled by Mr. Buchanan at Caracas the other three being left to arbitration. Two of these three have since been amicably adjusted without arbitration. The court of arbitration will meet at The Hague on May 15 1911 to hear and decide the case.

OLD AGE

What provision have you made for your family in old age? You have life insurance to protect them after you have gone. What of the years when you are too old to work—have you protected them at this period, too?

The safest and most profitable "old age" insurance is a good farm here in the heart of Wisconsin. It brings you two profits—one by rapid increase in value and the other in crops.

Profit in Dairies

No state produces better butter or cheese than Wisconsin. The rich, golden butter and thick cream from here commands a premium in every market.

Four cows usually yield $200 a year in butter and $150 in beef.

Clover and timothy grow so abundantly as to bring $10 an acre in the meadow. This clover prepares the soil and cows supply the fertilizer for enormous crops of sugar beets—the average yield per acre being more than any other non-irrigated state.

Ten Years to Pay

Other land in the Middle West, with the same soil and climate, is selling for from $100 to $150 an acre. But this enormous tract of half a million acres—stripped of its timber now—is thrown on the market at $6 to $20 an acre.

You need pay only one-third down and the rest within ten years. For $400 you can buy eighty acres of good $15 land, paying $5 an acre down and the balance later as the crops come in.

Write for our FREE booklet that tells the facts about soil, climate, roads, schools and churches, telephones, and price of crops.

I Am the Chiropractor

The Man Who Tells You a Common Sense Way to Be Well

It's a matter of choice with every sick person whether they will suffer from Asthma, Appendicitis, Bronchitis, Lung Trouble, Heart Disease, Stomach Trouble, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Bowel Complaint, Kidney and Bladder Diseases, Liver Trouble, Diseases of Women, Female Weakness, Epilepsy or Fits, Paralysis, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatic Eruption, Muscular Trouble etc.

Do not be discouraged if your ailment is not listed here, for the Chiropractic science REMOVES THE CAUSE OF ALL DISEASE, or come to me and be made well.

Here's a case in point: A woman in Beloit was operated on by a prominent physician for a tumor on the side of the face and the tumor was removed. Shortly after the wound healed they discovered more "germs"; at least the doctor said they were, and the "victim" was treated with the X-ray. Results: paralysis of the muscles causing the eye to remain open day and night.

That settled it with the patient. The next move was to come to the Chiropractor and after a few Chiropractic adjustments, this poor sufferer is on the RIGHT road to perfect recovery. Proof on application.

How Long Will You Suffer?

Don't fritter away your health in a vain chase after help from drugs and the knife. Come to the Chiropractor and be made well in a natural, sensible way by having the CAUSE of your trouble removed and not by "treating" symptoms.

GOOD ROADS

The legislative good roads committee, which recently visited Rock county, is gaining valuable information to present to the next session of the legislature. The committee found that Rock county was accomplishing intelligent work under the supervision of County Superintendent Skavlem, and that 60 miles of good macadam roads had been constructed during the past two years.

Another fact was observed, which was not so satisfactory, and that was in some parts of the county the farmers continue to work out their poll tax in the old-fashioned way by piling soil and sod in the middle of the road with an occasional load of gravel dumped in a pile and left as an obstruction to travel. This is a waste of time and money.

A law should be passed abolishing the poll tax, and every road built should be under the supervision of the county superintendent. If this work was augmented by the general use of the splitting drag the main thoroughfares, as well as the less traveled roads, would soon show marked improvement.

The legislative committee may report in favor of state aid, and should this be granted the work will necessarily be done under some sort of state supervision. Competent engineers will establish grades and make surveys, and details will be carried out under the direction of county superintendents.

The state has taken a long stride forward, in this most important work, and Rock county is to be congratulated in standing at the front. The day of haphazard road-building is a thing of the past, and in ten years the county should have 500 miles of roads that can be used twelve months of the year. Let the good work go on.

EDUCATION OF THE MASSES

The fact that the high schools of the state are simply feeders to the university led to a spirited discussion at the teachers' annual convention in Milwaukee last week, for public sentiment is so thoroughly aroused over the injustice of existing conditions that some of the educators are inclined to give both sides of the question a hearing.

Briefly stated the university demands that all high schools shall be on the accredited list, so that the two per cent of graduates who enter the university may do so without examinations.

On the other hand the parents who furnish the children are just beginning to recognize the fact that something more than an accredited course of study is due the 98 per cent who graduate from the common schools into the great university of life. The Milwaukee Free Press in commenting says:

"Many a high school of the old days, ministering efficiently to the needs of the bulk of its students, who were graduated from it into life, has been converted by the glamor of university credit into a miniature college that teaches nothing well, but enables a small percentage to enter the higher school without an examination. Today this same infatuation is at work keeping the people's schools from developing along those popular educational lines which aim at the equipment of the student for life, rather than the proficiency in certain studies demanded by purely cultural ideals."

The Governor Board, one of the university regents, is lending the fight for a sane and common-sense solution of the question. The common schools are the people's university, and the courses of study should be so practical that its graduates from the grades as well as the high school would have something more to show than a preparation for the university, which they never expect to enter.

WHEN IN NEED, BLAME US

"There are some people who, when they have nobody else to blame, dump the responsibility on Wall street. That seems to be Senator La Follette's idea of things, as indicated in the following quotation from his weekly magazine on the Crane incident, about which he seems to think there is some mystery:

"This much is known. Wall street is anxious to get in on the Chinese loan. Mr. Crane, though himself a big business man, is not subservient to Wall street."

"As already indicated in these columns, the one-time minister designate to China lacked the gift of discreet silence. Probably Tokio and St. Petersburg could enlighten the senator from Wisconsin as to why Mr. Crane never reached China on his diplomatic mission. But he is probably very much mistaken as to the attitude of Wall street on the matter. Mr. Crane conferred freely with people identified with the Chinese railway loan, and it is understood that the financial community saw in his acquaintances with conditions Chinese a ray of hope for investment activity in that country. No doubt Mr. Crane was not 'subservient to Wall street,' but what of it?"

The Wall Street Journal thus takes up the senior Wisconsin senator. Wall street has always been a convenient dumping ground, and is still used as a clearing house for scandal. Mr. Crane talked too much and therefore was elected to stay at home.

Senator Aldrich is so cleverly harassed by the insurgents that they now accuse him of trying to force a pot currency measure on the country. The senator is simply one of a monetary commission sent abroad to investigate and report. His only weakness is found in the fact that he possesses brains and money.

Samuel Gompers will gain nothing for himself, or organized labor, in denouncing the courts. The man who violates the law must expect to be punished when convicted. If this rule was not observed democratization would soon prevail, and the American government become a travesty.

From the present outlook the deposits of the defunct Mineral Point bank will do well if they recover 15 per cent. The man Allen, held responsible for the wreckage, is now planning to hold religious services at Leavenworth.

Buffalo and Boston have adopted government by commission, but Milwaukee opposes it and the press of the Cream city is doing all that it can to create sentiment against it. Rather small business, don't you think?

The man who refuses to sign the petition for a commission plan of government simply objects to giving the people an opportunity to vote on the question. The time to oppose it is when the question is submitted.

Prosperity in the west is no longer a dream and the tariff has ceased to be a nightmare. Everybody is busy making hay, and the little band of insurgents are the only kickers.

PRESS COMMENT

So Old It Is New

Once in awhile a story goes the rounds of a newspaper so many times that it seems like an old friend to greet it again after many years of absence. The Janesville News springs one of these old new jokes when it says: "Why should scientists be making all this fuss about a pearl having been taken from a lobster, when show girls have been taking diamonds from their right along?"

Thirty Is Too Much

That the fields public takes on fads and a duck does water has been illustrated by the billion figure and now the Milwaukee Journal explains matters by saying that the creator of Hilleken, the god of smiles, gets $20 a month in royalties, while the manufacturers of the little god are making fortunes. It's sometimes a tough proposition for one to attempt to make the world smile.

Not So Foolish

According to the Wausau Record-Herald, Senator Stephenson denies the soft impeachment in which he was to give heavily to Lawrence if the college was removed to Marinette. He would remind the public that there is no election pending in which he is personally interested.

Not by Long Shot

A new name is wanted for the power of the pen. The Madison Journal brings the matter to public attention by announcing that since the typewriter has abolished the quill and the pencil a new figure of speech is needed. It will hardly do to any longer speak of a man wielding a trenchant pen. How would it be to say that he swings a frazzling blundersworder?

Sure Thing

Herlin realizes that the President of Lawrence University sprang a big bluff when it talked about moving the University from Appleton and the Journal says as follows: "Mark you, this talk about Appleton's lack of duty and of moving Lawrence away is four flush. Appleton is all right. She has furnished Lawrence with a home and its home will always continue to be Appleton. The Plantz may be removed, some time, but the plant never."

Pays Compliments

Teachers throughout the state should sit up and take notice and give that their back hair is on straight when they read the nice things the Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin has to say about them and the annual convention of Wisconsin teachers has brought to Milwaukee a bright, intelligent throng of visitors from every part of the state. They go about with brisk steps; they are cheerful, energetic and optimistic. They bring with enthusiasm which will be of service to them in the exercise of their profession. The interest they take in their organization attests the earnestness with which they are committed to their work.

Perhaps Not

The Milwaukee Sentinel thinks that the Wisconsin man who married five women will find prison life a mighty tame affair.

New Requirement

The Marion Advertiser suggests that it is said the best way to preserve apples for winter is to wrap them in newspaper so as to exclude the air. This exception is made, however, that the newspapers must be on an which the subscription has been paid, otherwise the dampness resulting from what is "due" may spoil the apples.

A New Wrinkle

The Milwaukee Journal has a new wrinkle to suggest when it says that Mrs. La Vista, woman suffragette, declares that when women gain control of legislation, they will provide a law creating a four-hour work day for men in order that the latter will have more time for love-making. This announcement will doubtless win over many men to the cause of woman suffrage.

Think of the Money

The Merrill Herald is so strict in its ideas of propriety as regards the receiving of money from primary election candidates. It says that it understands from a recent editorial in the Antigo Journal, that paper will let its columns in the primary campaign be used for monetary considerations. If we interpret the article right we hope the Journal will reconsider its decision. The greatest defect we see in the primary law is the temptation to debauch the press.

No Talkation

The Herlin Journal talks about the Fox River and says that it is rather strange that the Fox river stays at just about such a stage after it gets low. All summer long the gates have been washing just up to the post on which the gauge is nailed, but too low to allow the measure to be of any use. It does not seem to go but little if any below what it was soon after the drouth began. It is accounted for by the natural springs that feed it and make just such a living stream. All above that comes from rain and drainage into the river. But rain or no rain, after it gets so low it does not generally vary much.

Sure They Will

The Antigo Journal likes the Democrats to the Esquimaux and La Follette to Dr. Cook and says that the democrats do not take the twenty per cent primary feature to their bosoms as fondly as they should. Report has it that they are planning to contest the law in court. This seems a strange procedure for them if they be honest democrats and have any faith in democratic principles. If they care to keep up a party organization why should they fear the new law? Surely they can muster enough electors at the primaries to keep them in the race if they would stop their flitting with the halfbreeds. That's all that ails them. La Follette feeds them gum drops, and like the Esquimaux, they will follow him to the end.

Uncle Walt

THE POET PHILOSOPHER

By WALT MASON

(Copyright, 1909, by George Mathew Adams.)

The maiden lingered in her tower,
While her father's stately tower—
It was four hundred
Years ago—her lover
CHANGED came, o'er cliff and Sear, and twang the strings of his guitar, and sang his love songs of soft and low. He said her breath was like the breeze that wafted over flowery leas, her cheeks were lovely as the roses; her eyes were stars, from heaven torn, and she was guileless of a corn upon her sweet angels' toes. For hours and hours his songs were sung, until a perfume spelled a hush, and then of course he had to quit; but Arabella from her room would shoot a smile that lit the gloom, and gave him a complexion fit.
Then homeward would the lover hie,
As happy as an August fly upon a bold man's shining head; and Arabella's heart would swell with happy ness too great to tell; ah me, those good old times are dead! Just let a modern lover scheme to win the damsel of his dream by punching tunes from his guitar! In silver tones she'd sigh and sear; she'd call to him:
"Come off! come off! where is your blooming motor car?"

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

A MODERN LOVE TALE.

All the world loves a lover.
And all the world loves a love story, even if it isn't true. Here is a pretty,
even if it isn't true.

Miss Josie Morrison, the winsome daughter of S. T. Morrison, a wealthy farmer of Palouse, Wash., eloped with her father's hired hand, William Henry Hughes.

The parents of the girl were so enraged that the entire police force of the northwest was invoked to arrest the pale of lovers and bring them back. But Hughes and Miss Morrison knew a thing or two, and the police never found them.

Not much romance about that, you say. It happens every day. But wait.

William Henry Hughes was no ordinary farm hand. He is the son of a millionaire contractor of Pittsburgh and is sole heir to vast estates, including a country mansion in the Adirondacks.

What was he doing out in Washington? He went west in search of his health, which he was told could be regained by hard labor. As a common farm hand he did good work during harvest and then hired out to Morrison for a term of four months.

And the beauty about this romance is Hughes never admitted a word concerning his place or position in society to the girl he wooed and won.

So that when Josie Morrison found herself falling in love with the good looking, modest and well educated Hughes she thought there was ahead of her nothing but a hard life of drudgery. She knew her parents would never voluntarily agree to her marriage with the farm hand. But she fearlessly faced the future that life with a poor man would bring.

She loved Hughes for himself. And he loved her the more because he knew the noble sacrifice she was making in her own mind.

But when Hughes made himself known to the elder Morrises after the marriage a different air greeted their paternal countenances.

Hughes as the son of a millionaire quite acceptable.

There was a fine reception ready for the elopers when they came back. The farm hand soon-in-law had sent back east in the meantime for his mother, who came west and graced the reception.

The account goes on to state that the bride is a graduate of an eastern college and is every way fitted for her new position.

This is a love story—pure and simple and sweet and true.

EFFECTIVE FRUIT PRESS.

Conical Cap Presses into Conical Shell and Gets All Juices.

A most effective fruit press and strainer is that designed by a California man. It is easy and rapid of operation, and gets every drop of juice from the fruits or berries that are used. The press consists of a circular rim with detachable legs. When the legs are adjusted it makes a tripod. A perforated central shell fits into the rim of the tripod, the bottom of the case clearing the table sufficiently to admit of a dish beneath it. The fruit or berries are poured into the shell and a conical cap that just fits inside the shell is pressed down through the contents. The juice that is thus squeezed out of the fruit drips through the perforations of the shell into the dish below, and a few twists of the cap suffice to drain the start as dry as it can be gotten. The cap is hollow and can be filled with sand or water or some weighting substance if desired, so that its own weight will cause it to settle and do the work.

BIDS FOR COUNTY MONEY

Will Be Opened Tomorrow Morning—Supt. Barstow Submitted Annual Report of Poor Farm and Asylum.

All of the members of the county board of supervisors were present with the exception of the Messrs. Hopkins, Edgerton and Miller of Fulton when Chairman L. E. Gettle called the meeting to order at two o'clock this afternoon.

Three bids for the use of the county money during the next fiscal year were referred to Committee No. 4 and will be opened tomorrow morning.

The petition of the town of Turtle for a bridge over Turtle creek will be taken up under the head of unfinished business.

Three bills for services from cattle appraisers appointed by former Justice of the Peace Clark of Johnston but not included in his report were allowed. They amounted to $2 each.

County Treasurer A. M. Church reported personal property taxes in various sections of the county aggregating $168,55.

District Attorney J. L. Fisher in a communication called the attention of the supervisors to the delinquent municipal court tangle arising out of his refusal of the board to pay Acting Judge Goodhouse for his services, while Judge Rosa was absent and also to the new law providing that a fund should be created for criminal investigations. The communication was referred to Committee 13.

Judge Rosa of Deloit called attention to the fact that the clerk in the Deloit municipal court (Miss Gately) is only allowed a salary of $37.50 while the same officer in Janesville gets $50 and the smaller fees which are likewise paid her as court stenographer; declared that the bulk of business in the Deloit City court was quite as large as that in the Janesville court; and asked for an appropriate increase.

The matter was referred to a special committee on salaries to be appointed.

The soldiers' relief committee reported that $5,165 had been distributed for general relief; $177.10 for special relief; and that the balance on hand to date was $2,930.18.

Mr. Langworth of the poor farm and asylum trustees submitted the annual report and Supt. D. M. Barstow of these institutions read his report.

The board will probably be in session four days. The announcement that a chairman was to be elected and new committees appointed at this session was erroneous.

GOVERNMENT TAKES HAND IN THE GAME

United States Internal Revenue Inspector Causes Rearrest of A. E. Graham.

What appeared to have been a wholesale attempt of a gang of swindlers to defraud the public and the government by the sale of a mixture of oleomargarine and butter in packages under the name of creamery butter, which was shipped in the but here last Saturday, is now being taken up by the government and investigated.

A. E. Graham, the young man arrested last Saturday who was fined fifty dollars and costs for selling the goods, is thought to be merely a pawn in the game and the real heads of the affair are now being sought. Graham telephoned a friend in a Milwaukee hospital named Davis to come to his aid and today Davis arrived and paid the fine. Meanwhile, however, Beecher Sterne, an inspector in the internal revenue department, appeared on the scene. Sterne had been doing some investigating of his own and decided to hold Graham further. Deputy United States Marshal Hugh then swore out a warrant for Graham.

Pugh secured a warrant for Graham's arrest from United States Federal Court Commissioner Tallman and as soon as the young man was brought from the jail to the city hall he was again taken into custody, this time on a federal warrant charging him with selling oleomargarine as butter.

That Graham may know something of the gang which have been making their name just is almost certain. This is evidenced by the fact that the moment Graham was arrested here they made themselves scarce. They had been receiving mail at the Thunkton home and had written many letters from that hotel. There are letters there now for them which have remained uncalled for and it is thought they have slipped back to Chicago, which is their permanent headquarters. The same game was worked in Milwaukee that was worked here. An agent for a supposed creamery butter concern told Beecher Sterne that he was a creamery man and was making a fortune and made less than creamery prices and made away with the sale before suspicion was caused. However, in Janesville the young man was arrested and over eight hundred pounds of the supposed butter taken by the government officials.

Graham was arraigned before Commissioner Tallman and taken to Madison to remain in custody of the federal officers until his trial comes up.

BUSKIRK CASE WAS ADJOURNED AGAIN

Motion to Postpone Trial Until Nov. 12 Cuts Short Examination of Jurors.

After eight jurors had been drawn in the case of Miss Louise Miller against Fred Buskirk in municipal court this morning, an adjournment was taken until 10 o'clock Friday morning, Nov. 12, on motion of Attorney E. J. Oestreich representing the state. The motion came after a consultation had been held with Drs. Nuzum and Penber with regard to the validity of the plaintiff's testimony.

The case was called this morning at 10 o'clock and the entire morning taken up with the examination of prospective jurors. Of the venire first drawn, the following were excused for various reasons: A. J. Bonahon, Andrew Gibson, W. E. Arnold, E. W. Lowell, and J. P. Baker. This left but eight who were acceptable to both attorneys and a second special venire of six names was drawn, consisting of E. T. Brown, George H. Keator, Sam Grundy, M. Callins, T. H. Callen, and W. F. Meek, after which a half hour recess was taken until 11:20.

Those accepted by both sides before the recess were: David Cain, J. J. Flynn, T. H. Spohn, W. B. Conrad, J. J. Kohler, H. C. Proctor, O. S. Morse and David Couper.

No action was taken, however, on the qualifications of the special venire as the motion to postpone the case until Nov. 12 put a stop to the examination.

IMPROVED TRUCK MADE IN CITY

Horse-drawn Truck That Adopts Automobile Axle Bearings is Made by Local Company.

When two horses can be made to do the work of four, it is pretty evident that some one has been going the automobile one better from the standpoint of economy.

This appears to be a fact in the instance of a new two-horse truck just completed by the Janesville Carriage Works for the Wholesale Grocery Company of this city. By using the famous Thinner roller bearings on the axles the makers of this new truck have made it possible to reduce by about 50 per cent, the pulling power needed to draw a load. In other words they have made it possible for two horses to draw a load that would require four horses where an old style axle is used.

Trucks of this type are entirely new to Janesville, although they are in use at present by the big wholesale grocery companies in all eastern cities. The Thinner roller bearings are the same as those found on the highest priced automobiles today.

This truck has a capacity of 10,000 pounds and is made with three much wider than the trucks now seen in Janesville. It is made with a top so that the body can be closed tight and made waterproof. The material is selected special grade stock and the construction is all hand work.

FILE CHARGES WITH POLICE COMMISSION

Council's Action Last Night Will Result in Bringing Two Officers Before Commission Soon.

As a result of last evening's council action, when charges were preferred against Officers Sam Brown and William Mason, City Attorney Maxfield is today preparing specific charges which will be signed by Mayor Carlo and presented to the Fire and Police Commission for their action.

Owing to the absence of President Jeffrie of the commission from the city the charges will probably not be taken up until tomorrow. Meanwhile the two officers will remain on duty. While the power lies with the chief of police to suspend the officers pending an investigation, there is an uncertainty as to this and Chief of Police Apply will await orders from the commission before doing anything.

Meanwhile he is himself investigating the charges against the two officers. A warrant has been sworn out for Nathan, the man whom Mason hit last Saturday night, charging that it will be some days before Nathan is able to appear in court. Secretary Hendricks of the fire and police commission stated this morning that no charges had been filed with the commission, but that as soon as they were they would be acted upon. City Attorney Maxfield, it is learned, is preparing the necessary papers for Mayor Carlo's signature.

GOOD BARGAINS FOR SOMEONE

The three biggest heating stove bargains of the season are described herewith: One a 16-in. drop Chimneyless heating stove, made with the celebrated 3-due construction, a stove that the makers guarantee to be heavier and to be constructed as good in every way as any of the highest priced stoves on the market. This stove is offered at $12.00, which is $13 less than well known stoves sold for and is a size larger. Another of the bargains is a Columbia heater, 18-inch drop, heavier and larger than any stove retailed in Janesville. Equal to the best stoves made. The price is $15.00 and this means a saving of $15. The third bargain is an Ambros 17-in. drop, well constructed, handsome model trimmed at $15.00. ## AROUSED ST. LOUIS AT NOONDAY CLUB

SENATOR ALDRICH ADDRESSES THE BUSINESS MEN CONCERNING CURRENCY REFORM.

MUST AID ENTIRE COUNTRY

Statesman Assured Hearers It Is Possible to Inaugurate a System Which Will Be Free from Politics and Prevent Panics.

St. Louis, Nov. 9.—With an earnest plea for their co-operation and aid Senator Nelson F. Aldrich addressed a gathering of bankers at the Noonday club and later the full membership of the Commercial club. He made it quite evident to his hearers that it was his purpose to devote himself for the present to the work of reforming the currency system of the United States.

Senator Aldrich went directly to the heart of his subject and frankly and bluntly told his hearers that he was in St. Louis for the sole purpose of arousing interest in the great work upon which the monetary commission is engaged.

Shows Change Is Necessary. "I do not come to you with any plan of monetary reform," he said. "Indeed, if I should be delegated today to individually and personally prepare a statement for a new system of finance for the country, I should be at a loss as to how to proceed. I should find it necessary to enter upon a careful investigation. I would not undertake to formulate anything without much more study than I have been able to give to this subject. Even in that event I should want your advice and co-operation, and should ask your aid, just as I am asking it now for the commission."

"I realize, as I know all of you do, the absolute necessity of reforming the currency. If it is to be reformed, upon the broadest national basis. Seeks to Aid Entire Country. "Our system must be one which will satisfy the people of New England, the agriculturists of the Mississippi valley, the miners of the Rocky mountains and the Pacific coast, and the merchants of all sections. Surely the task before us is one of gigantic proportions, and the results of our efforts, good or bad, must depend not alone upon our own wisdom, but upon the assembled good judgment of the leading banking and commercial men of the entire nation."

Refers to Central Bank. The nearest approach that Mr. Aldrich made to any indication of a plan was his return to the subject of bank issues. He mentioned the fact that the European countries were quite agreed on that subject, and referred to the circumstance that most, or all of these countries have main central banking institutions for the issuance of bank paper.

He assured his hearers of his desire to hold the subject entirely above political bias, and he went into some detail to convince his audience that it would be possible to adopt a system which would accomplish this desirable result.

Mr. Aldrich dwelt upon the necessity of developing a system of credit which would protect the country against such disastrous results as were experienced during the bankers' panic of 1907.

He expressed the decided opinion that with proper safeguards the country need not again submit to such a general crash as then was precipitated with so little reason in the business conditions of the country.

THREE DEAD IN AUTO PLUNGE.

Believed Man and Woman Were Eloping Couple.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Almost positive identification of three persons drowned Sunday night when an automobile ran into an open draw at the Jackson boulevard bridge and plunged into the river was made through the report of the disappearance of Miss Beatrice Shapiro, 1102 South Paulina street, and Max Cohen, 3214 West Thirtieth street, and of the chauffeur of the submerged car, Ernest Camp, 2018 Prairie avenue.

Romance played a part in the tragedy, for relatives of Miss Shapiro and Max Cohen say that the two may have been about to elope when they started on the ride that led to the river and their death.

The connection of these three with the automobile disaster practically clears up the mystery of the accident, for it is now believed that there were no other passengers in the automobile. No other persons were reported missing to the police since the accident.

Big Army Is Useless. Chicago, Oct. 9.—That the United States has no need of a great standing army, as the state militia is sufficient for all demands; the country has progressed more since the civil war than England has in 500 years, and the union soldier has gained greater victories in peace than he did during war, were the assertions in an address by former Gov. Samuel R. Van Sant of Minnesota, now commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, at the annual banquet of the Western Society of the Army of the Potomac, in the Palmer house last night.

THE HUNGER FOR LAND

Measures of the Government to Appease the Appetites for Farms.

A Wonderful Exhibit by the Departments of the Interior and Agriculture at the United States Land and Irrigation Exposition at Chicago from Nov. 20th to Dec. 4th.

A debt of gratitude and a vote of thanks will be due the Chicago Tribune from the American people when the United States Land and Irrigation Exposition is over. The inception of this great undertaking was entirely due to the Tribune. The idea originated with the Tribune, and the entire responsibility, financial and otherwise, was assumed by the Tribune.

So timely did this enterprise seem to be that all the great irrigation and other land interests were quickly won and promised their participation and support. The United States government has thought so well of the Tribune's idea that it will be the largest exhibitor.

All the exhibits of the exposition will deal with the idea of establishing American homes upon small farms. All the features of this unique and wonderful show will be pivoted around the idea that the best place for an American family is in a home of its own, and that home a tract of land large enough to maintain the family in any emergency. With our better knowledge of plants and soils and cultural practices a few acres have an astonishing capacity for production. Valuable instruction along these lines will be found by the visitor at the coming exposition, Nov. 20 to Dec. 4, at Chicago's great Coliseum.

Besides the features specially prepared and brought from Washington, the best features from the government's exhibit at Seattle will be installed at Chicago. The reclamation service, the geological survey, the land office, the forestry service, the patent office, the bureau of animal industry, the bureau of plant industry, the weather bureau, the office of experiment stations and the bureau of entomology will all participate in a manner worthy of the government of eighty millions of people.

The value of the government exhibits to the visitor will lie in the fact that they are now and represent the latest thought and development in the various lines which they represent. All will relate to irrigation, drainage, dry farming and to the industries of the farm, especially of the new farms which are being reclaimed from what has long been regarded as waste land.

THE BIG LAND SHOW

Chicago's Chief of Police Assures Visitors That Everything Will Be Ready for Their Comfort.

Chief of Police Steward of Chicago is mindful of the comfort of visitors during the coming Land Exposition, which will be held during the same time as the International Live Stock Show, Nov. 20 to Dec. 4.

"We shall not only police the exposition, but also all those parts of the city which the visitors will frequent. If there are any suspicious characters in sight, we shall speedily warn them to leave the city. We are determined that our guests during the exposition season shall be as free from annoyance as a thoroughly organized police and detective force can make them. Ordinarily the stranger in Chicago is as safe here as in any city—we purpose to make him doubly so during the two weeks of the exposition and Live Stock Show. We have on the force many men who are experienced in looking after large crowds and they will all be on duty at the right points during the Land and Irrigation festival."

"I am taking a special interest in this coming land show, for I realize its great importance to the country and to the city of Chicago, and I appreciate the earnestness of the people who are going to be Chicago's visitors. Many people who are seeking new locations for their homes will come to Chicago and many of them will not be on the alert for suspicious characters. To such people we shall give special care and do all in the power of our strong organization to see that no one falls into the hands of the confidence men or other swindlers during his presence within our gates."

"I appreciate the enterprise of the Chicago Tribune in promoting and financing this great exposition and it is my wish to have our police organization assume a large measure of the responsibility for the comfort of our guests on this splendid occasion."

Hereditarily. "It's too bad that Gladys Miggles is such a silly sort of girl. She is pretty enough, but she acts so foolish that she seems a perfect dummy. What is the reason for it?" asks the party of the first part.

"It's simply enough explained," answers the party of the second part. "Her mother was a dress reformer and her father was a rock-the-best idiot."—Chicago Post.

His State of Mind. Knicker—My wife always thinks there are burglars in the house. Knicker—John Bull thinks they are on the roof.

A Sign. "If a man would rather have talent than be handsome it is a sign that he isn't handsome and knows it."

Couldn't Then. "I would like mightily to enjoy riches."

"Then why don't you try to marry 'em?"

"As I said, I want to enjoy 'em."—Kansas City Times.

He Won't Believe It. Many a man who is complaining because the world does not take him for what he is worth would be kidding harder if it did.

HOTELS READY FOR THE RUSH

All the Hostleries, Big and Little, Are Prepared for the Coming of the Land and Exposition Guests.

"Chicago is not going to be caught unprepared for the big crowds that will attend the Land and Irrigation Exposition," is the report given by a leading hotel manager. "We have been keeping our ear to the ground, and we hear reports from every direction that we are going to be surprised by the number of guests on account of the 'novel show' at the Coliseum, Nov. 20 to Dec. 4. Of course, we always expect a big attendance at the Live Stock Show, which occurs on the same dates, but we shall have a crowd that will surpass anything seen in many years when the doors of the Land and Irrigation Exposition are thrown open on Nov. 20. Every hotel in Chicago is looking forward to this event and is prepared to see its capacity packed to the full by a class of visitors who do not often get in Chicago."

"This Land Exposition has a different sort of pull from the other big fairs that are held at the Coliseum from time to time. We appreciate the fact that we are going to have a very substantial class of visitors on this occasion and that they will come from many states."

"According to the plans of the exposition, it will be a great educational event and enable the land seeker to save money by having concentrated under one roof all the leading regions of the country where life is made attractive by irrigation and an agreeable climate and productive soil. You may tell all prospective visitors that we are ready for them and for them to come and enjoy this feast which Chicago has spread."

The theater managers are also making preparations for special attractions during the exposition period. They will also take steps to be rid of the ticket scalpers and speculators who often interfere with patrons of the theater and prevent them from getting seats at the regular prices.

"We shall do our part to entertain the exposition visitors in a fitting manner," said one of the prominent theater managers, speaking for all of the prominent theaters.

THE GRAND CANYON IN OIL

The Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone river will be represented in a painting covering 3,000 square feet of surface at the north end of the gallery in the Coliseum during the Land and Irrigation Exposition, which begins Nov. 20. The Yellowstone Park is the mother of several great rivers that are now used for irrigation and the subject is a very fitting one for such an occasion. This will be the largest reproduction of the famous canyon ever shown. Thousands of electric lights will give the effect of water flowing through the canyon and will show in the perspective the living waterfall, which in reality is 1,000 feet high.

WATCHMAN KILLS GIMLET THIEF

Man Surprised While Breaking Into Residence Is Shot Dead.

St. Louis, Nov. 9.—The "gimlet burglar," who has been robbing St. Louis homes for a year and a half, was shot dead by William F. Mannion, watchman in the yard of Col. Edwin A. Dandorf's home.

The burglar, a negro, was surprised while trying to break into the residence of James Kavanaugh, next door to the Dandorf residence.

In the dead man's pocket was found the gimlet with which he had bored holes in the slats of window shutters, loosening them so that he could lift the latch. His identity has not been established.

RICH MINE OWNER DIES A TRAMP

Is Believed to Be Buried in Potter's Field.

La Crosse, Wis., Nov. 9.—Owner of a rich coal mine at Springfield, Ill., six years ago, Walter Jordan, a steam workman, was killed near here by a train and buried unidentified in the potter's field, and today Kate Jordan of Chicago and James C. Jordan of St. Paul, sister and brother, will exhume his body. From descriptions his relatives are certain it is their brother, who dissipated a fortune in drink, became a tramp and was killed while in an intoxicated condition.

A few years ago Jordan owned the Springfield mine, but, offered a large sum for his mining interests, disposed of them. The cash was spent freely until within a very short time Jordan was broke. Ashamed to look his relatives in the face he disappeared and, since that time has been missing.

Belgian Horse Fairs. Horse fairs, held almost continuously, have helped to make Belgium the greatest horse-breeding country of its size in the world. The fairs are largely attended by foreign buyers, especially Germans, who purchase 25,000 horses a year at these exhibitions. It is estimated that there are now 300,000 horses in Belgium, a country not quite as large as the state of Maryland, which has just about half that number of horses.

Neighborly Consideration. "I heard your baby crying nearly all night. What was the matter with it?" "I think she wanted me to get up and carry her around, but I was afraid if I did you'd be disturbed by hearing me tramping the floor over your head."

Horse fairs, held almost continuously, have helped to make Belgium the greatest horse-breeding country of its size in the world. The fairs are largely attended by foreign buyers, especially Germans, who purchase 25,000 horses a year at these exhibitions. It is estimated that there are now 300,000 horses in Belgium, a country not quite as large as the state of Maryland, which has just about half that number of horses.

GERMANY IS SECOND SEA POWER

THE VANDERBILT CUP.
View of course showing the teams and men at work on the road. Below: At left Strang, and at right, Chevrolet, two of the many strong entries.

New York.—Saturday last was the banner day of the year in American automobile circles. It was the day upon which the greatest American drivers, piloting the speediest of cars, drove and strove for victory in the American automobile classic, the Vanderbilt cup race. The fact that the Automobile Club of America has abandoned the grand prize, held at Savannah last Thanksgiving, gives the Vanderbilt full sweep in the fall auto racing circles.

Cars were divided into four classes for the higher priced and powered cars will go over the route for the Vanderbilt cup, while the smaller cars go shorter distances for the Wheatley hills and Mississippi cups.

While the spirit of international rivalry characteristic of the earlier contests was making this year a number of foreign cars participated. They will no longer race as champions of the country of their origin, but as cars owned by individual Americans and entered for the love of the sport itself. The passing of the event from an international to a national competition will probably lessen interest in some quarters, but the enthusiasm of the general public was indicated by the demand for seats, which is greater than last year.

The race was held over the Nassau country course, which is 22.64 miles long.

The racing arrangements this year were a great improvement over previous years. Sheriff Foster of Nassau county had organized a big force of men and at short intervals the sheriff and A. R. Farland had established regular police and flag stations at which men were on duty.

These stations were marked by a yellow placard and numbered consecutively. Acting in conjunction with the sheriff, the Pinkerton agency had about 400 picked uniformed men on duty. This force was to be drawn from all parts of the country and comprised men from various cities.

Following the precedent set in previous Vanderbilt cup races a complete telephone system was installed around the course. At each point at which communication was likely to be necessary a station was established and connected with the official stand by its own independent line, and these telephones were in charge of trained operators.

The entries were as follows:

- 1—Simplex.....J. A. Mitchell
- 2—Bentley.....Joe. Seymour
- 3—Chalmers-Detroit "40".....H. D. Blum

M'FARLAND VICTOR; DECISION POPULAR

DEFEATS "CYCLONE" THOMPSON IN TEN FAST ROUNDS OF MILLING.

IS GIVEN THE DECISION

Stock Yards Boy Proves Too Fast for Sturdy Sycamore Lad—Neither One in Shape for Grueling Contest Over Distance.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 9.—In a whirlwind ten-round battle here last night, Packey McFarland, the Chicago stock yards favorite, was given the decision by Referee Coffey over "Cyclone Johnny" Thompson of Sycamore, Ill.

The battle was that of a scientific boxer who was able to hit and get away against a man whose main asset is slugging and who could not get near enough to his shifty opponent to land.

Second Round Was Thompson's.

In but one round, the second, was Thompson able to send home enough telling blows to make it appear that his strength would carry the fight home to him. But with Packey hanging and making the most of his wonderful footwork, the "Cyclone" could not corner him. After that round there was little doubt as to the outcome, although Thompson took a brace in the last three rounds and did some good work.

Crowd Approves the Verdict.

A mighty shout of approval went up when at the end of the tenth round Referee Joe Coffey of Chicago raised Packey's right hand, signifying that he had won. A few of Thompson's friends clamored for a draw, but the decision was popular in the main.

Thompson expressed the opinion that he could defeat McFarland in a longer fight. It was the general opinion about the ring that neither man was in shape to stand a long, grueling battle.

About $5,000 was taken in. Sixty per cent. of this went to the fighters, who divided it 60 per cent. to the winner and 40 per cent. to the loser.

EXPERIMENTING WITH MONKEYS.

Mental Capabilities of the Simian Are Being Inquired Into.

Washington, Nov. 9.—After several months' observation of 11 East Indian monkeys the scientists of George Washington university have come to certain conclusions regarding the mental capabilities of the simian.

The idea of Prof. W. T. Shepherd, who has been conducting the experiments, is to train monkeys carefully for several months and then to leave them to their own devices. After a time these monkeys will be killed and their brains compared with those of monkeys not trained at all and of monkeys killed at the height of their mental development. Prof. Shepherd, who will prepare a treatise on simian psychology, said:

"While the experiments have shown that the monkey is superior to a human being, so far as the lower animal faculties are concerned, I hesitate to believe that the little animals ever will be able to approach the high standard of mentality of man, such as exercising judgment and reason."

DECIDES AGAINST INDIANS.

U. S. Supreme Court Refuses Redress to 13,000 Redskins.

Washington, Nov. 9.—In an opinion by Justice Holmes, the supreme court of the United States decided against the claimants in the case of the 13,000 Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians, who asked for redress for being excluded from the citizenship rolls of those nations when they were prepared by Secretary Hitchcock of the interior department March 4, 1907.

The suit was instituted by J. E. Fleming, and was very sensational in its charges. It was alleged among other things that the citizenship rolls had been prepared on fraudulent lists, that the citizenship court had been bribed, that $750,000 had been paid to an Oklahoma legal firm as the result of unlawful conniving, and that, notwithstanding these charges had been brought to the attention of Secretary Garfield, he had failed to investigate them. It was also asserted that the secretary had withdrawn vast areas of land for reservation purposes and for other uses contrary to law.

Blain Man Was Hargis Juror.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 9.—Although the police still believe that robbery was the motive for the murder of H. D. Gannon, the real estate dealer, whose body was found on the roof of a ten-story building Sunday, interest is added to the case by the report received from Lexington, Ky., that Gannon was a member of the Hargis jury—the only member to hold out for conviction.

Bluths Are Cunning.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 9.—Lester Thorp, wanted in St. Louis, St. Charles and in this city, was captured while in a game of football. The officers entered the game in players' costumes and, during a scramble for the ball, grabbed the fugitive. Fear of a fight inspired the officers to this unusual method of making the arrest.

"Outlaw" Circuit Joins Minors.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 9.—The national baseball board of arbitration, in session here, has decided to admit the California State league, an "outlaw" circuit, to membership in the National Association of Minor Leagues.

A Time for Caution.

Makes Kidneys Act Fine, Ending Lame Back and Bladder Misery

Several doses will regulate your out-of-order kidneys and make you feel fine.

A real surprise awaits every sufferer from kidney or bladder trouble who takes several doses of Pope's Diuretic. Misery in the back, sides or loins, sick headache, nervousness, rheumatism, palpitations, dizziness, sleeplessness, inflamed or swollen eyelids, lack of energy and all symptoms of out-of-order kidneys simply vanish.

Uncontrollable urination (especially at night), smarting, offensive and discolored water and other bladder misery ends.

The moment you suspect kidney or urinary disorder, or feel any rheumatism, begin taking this harmless medicine, with the knowledge that there is no other remedy, at any price, made anywhere else in the world, which will effect so thorough and prompt a cure as a fifty-cent treatment of Pope's Diuretic, which any druggist can supply.

It is needless to feel miserable and worried, because this unusual preparation goes at once to the out-of-order kidneys and urinary system, distributing its cleansing, healing and strengthening influence directly upon the organs and glands affected, and completes the cure before you realize it.

Your physician, pharmacist, banker or any mercantile agency will tell you that Pope, Thompson & Pope, of Cincinnati, is a large and responsible medicine concern, thoroughly worthy of your confidence.

Accept only Pope's Diuretic—fifty-cent treatment—any drug store—anywhere in the world.

Mary and Her Beau.

It is somewhat startling to learn that Mary's beau expects Mary to help support him when the twins are wedded, and instead of becoming sole master of the establishment, the provider of its needs, however humble, who must turn to and work at the same employment which is giving her board and clothes at the present time. "Yes, Mary," says Mary's beau, "you earn $10 a week typing for the Chicken Feed Company, and I am now getting eight dollars for clocking in Old Grimes' store. We ought to be able to live on $18 a week. So let's have the wedding. Thanksgiving day."

"Yes," sighs Mary.—Boston Herald.

Rapid Work of Printers.

To celebrate the advance of the printing art, particularly its increase in speed, a Caxton memorial Bible was wholly printed and bound in 12 hours in 1877. Only 100 copies were struck off.

PHILBIN, YALE HALFBACK SHOWS REMARKABLE FORM.

New Haven, Conn.—Philbin has been playing a conservative game for the past two years, but has never been looked on as an unusual player till the game against the Army rolled around. In the second half Philbin was put in and through his work alone two touchdowns resulted. He blocked a punt on the Army's ten yard line and made a 40 yard run down the field. This work has marked him as one of the strong players of 1909.

An Increase of Over 50% in Efficiency Justifies An Increase of About 25% in Cost

The value of an advertising medium depends upon the number of people reached and the class of people reached.

During the past 24 months the circulation of the Daily Gazette has increased over 50 per cent. More than 3/4ths of the homes in the following cities and towns take the Gazette regularly.

JANESVILLE	EVANSVILLE
BRODHEAD	EDGERTON
CLINTON	MILTON
FOOTVILLE	MILTON JUNCTION
HANOVER	NEW GLARUS
ORFORDVILLE	MONTICELLO

And all the rural routes in the county and adjacent territory, excepting those immediately adjacent to Beloit.

This year has seen the advent of two new parks and the starting of the third. The Philadelphia-American team and the Pittsburgh Nationals have parks that show investments of many thousands of dollars. Consistently with his south side park in Chicago for the American league at that point will have a field open next season which he states will be the most convenient and best all-round baseball field in the world.

This year's world series attendance broke all previous records and reached the great total of 130,000 people.

The "Suicides" of Sam. (Eighteenth attempt)

A Lost Opportunity.

WILL WISCONSIN BE VICTORS SATURDAY?

Conversation Between Coach and Dr. Hutchins Seems to Point to This Fact.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Madison, Wis., Nov. 9.—Wisconsin expects to put away Minnesota at football here next Saturday. The ubiquitous blue tates persistently handed out for a month by Head Coach Tom Barry are no longer possessed of foundation in fact. A good natured though earnest colloquy between Athletic Director C. P. Hutchins and Coach Barry showed to those who heard it that the Badgers have not given up hope, but are convinced of their ability to fight out a victory from the Gophers. Said Dr. Hutchins: "Say Tom, cut out this bear dope you've been giving to the reporters all season."

"Why, Doc?"

"It isn't so, in the first place, and besides, it's going to hurt the gate receipts."

Hutchins, by the way, has to look out for the "spondulix" with which to run athletics at this school, and to football he looks for money to support baseball, track work and part of the crew expenses. So he naturally wants the Minnesota game to bring many plunks into the exchequer.

"I think it's a good thing to have the other team think they have us whipped in advance," replied Barry. "Nor have I told any but about our team, either. You know our fellows have been hanging on the hospital list all season. Just now they seem to be getting into shape, but there's no use bragging about it. Let Minnesota and Chicago think we're a bunch of cripples."

"Yes, but you know, Tom, all your regulars will be there, and ready to win, and I want the bear stuff cut out. Lots of people will stay away from the game and save their two dollars if they get to thinking that Minnesota will walk all over us."

"Well, if Minnesota don't do that same thing, all the scores up to now have been way to the bad, for look at Chicago getting beat 20 to 6 by Minnesota while we just got away with a 21 to 11 win from Northwestern, and a week later Chicago made 34 to nothing against Northwestern."

Barry smiled when he said it, and Hutchins laughed right out.

"Dandy joke, Tom," replied Hutchins when he had had his laugh, "but what about those letters from our old players up north, who saw that Minnesota-Chicago game, saying that Chicago's weakness was the big surprise of that game, and not Minnesota's strength. You saw it yourself. Chicago's team was up against a heavy bunch for the first time in the season, and Chicago, for the first time in years did not have a big fast star. Pat Page was not fit to be in the game at all, and there was hospital trouble in Chicago's line, too, and so Minnesota broke through and Page was not able to get his plays in motion and could not get his passes away. And our game at Northwestern, doesn't tell anything. You know Driver came back with the team and said we could have beat them 40 to nothing. One of their touchdowns came on Anderson's fumble—a pure fluke."

"That's all right enough, but look what Chicago did to Northwestern, just the next Saturday. Thirty-four to nothing."

"Go on. Captain Ward was out of Northwestern's line. Ward is the best tackle we have met in years. His breaking through our line in the Northwestern game is what broke up so many of our plays and then his mauling made yards and yards. When Chicago played Northwestern they had all come back. Page was right in that game and the line was braced. And, too, Captain Ward did not play. He was not there to break through and spoil Chicago's plays and he was not there to kick. Manly's kicking for Northwestern in the Chicago game was a joke. Most all work poor, stinky kicks, and Chicago ran them right back. It was just like handling the ball over without kicking."

Barry kept it up, however, coming back with:

"Nobody wants to win more than I do, but we have no right to expect to do much better than Chicago against Minnesota, considering the weight of the Minnesota line and the condition of our men."

"Well, now, let's get down to brass tacks, Harry, and take them man for man. We've got just as good a line as Minnesota, and I think we're better. We outplayed Minnesota's line last year, at any rate we beat them. We had nearly the same bunch we have this year. Jimmy Dean at right end and Boyls and Ostroff at left end, and they're bigger and better than they were last year."

"But look at our left end, and our center trio," expostulated Barry.

"What of it? Captain Rogers was so worried about being captain that he was off his game all last year, and everybody knows he fell down in the Minnesota game. Puck will play a better game for us at left end this year than Rogers did last year. And, yes, look at our center. Busor and Macmillan at guards and Arpla at center. The three of them outplayed our regulars in scrimmages, but we could not use them on the first team because they were freshmen. Arpla had it on Stohm even though outweighed, and you well know that Busor and Macmillan are vastly better guards than Dreytzer and Messmer. Messmer never was meant for a guard and if Busor or Macmillan were eligible last year Messmer would have played tackle or end. Our backfield is as good as last year. We have Captain Viles, Cutler and Noll back again, and while Anderson is not as good in some respects as Muckleston was at right half, Anderson runs better and faster than Muckleston ever did. It's up to you, Tom, to get a little cheery, right now, and cut out this bear stuff."

Then the little bunch laughed its way over to the Elks' clubhouse for a glass of milk.

To Talk to Young Men: On Wednesday evening next John Parkhurst, astronomer at the Yerkes observatory, Lake Geneva, will deliver a talk to the Young Men's Club of the Presbyterian church. His subject will be "Star Shots."

Advertising is Business Insurance. Once upon a time—and this is no fairy tale—a sucker after more business refused to pick up business that was possible to get by advertising. A traveler came along who saw the possibilities and said: "Let here is my opportunity," and in a short time he annexed the business. You may not see any moral in this, but the cold fact remains: The advertiser got the business.
